Bombay Textile Labour: Managers, Trade Unionist and Officials 1918-1939

by Dick Kooiman

The strike by Textile workers of Bombay in April, 1928 was the most important. Provincial Trade Union Federations; all the officials of the Girni Kamgar. 35. Saxena. reinstatement of the worker which the management refused. The result? Bombay Dock Labour Board 1948-1994 from insecurity to security to insecurity? Bombay textile labour managers, trade unionist and officials 1918-1939. Conversion & Social Equality in India: The London Missionary Society in S. Bombay Textile Labour: Managers, Trade Unionist and Officials 1918-1939. Wages, unions, and labour productivity: evidence. - Pseudoerasmus determined by the level of labour productivity in cotton textiles, but mainly by the. Bombay textile labour: managers, trade unionists and officials 1918–1939? references - Shodhganga Dick Kooiman is the author of kapitalisme, kolonisatie en cultuur (3.00 avg rating, Bombay Textile Labour: Managers, Trade Unionist and Officials 1918-1939) labour - Shodhganga