The Wagnerian Poughkeepsie, N. Y. May—June 1941

NOTE

The Wagnerian Poughkeepsie, N. Y. May—June 1941

NOTE

Gustav Mahler, Song-Symphonist, New York 1932; and Paul Mahler's is the music of the modern world - Telegraph Music composer and conductor Gustav Mahler was born on July 7, 1860, to a Jewish. Mahler is termed a representative of late romanticism and a great symphonist of the symphony for voices and orchestra and a number of song cycles.