Zenzele Best - United Nations Association of Greater Boston

Zenzele is a Texas native whose work combines film/video, photo, design, mix media, and animation. Prior to her education at the Rhode Island School of Art, she worked as a graphic designer for the United Nations and the World Health Organization. Zenzele's work has been exhibited at galleries and museums around the world, including the Museum of Modern Art in New York City and the Contemporary Art Museum in St. Louis. She has also been commissioned by clients such as Nike, IBM, and the United Nations. Zenzele is currently the co-founder of Zenzele, a creative agency that specializes in bringing together artists and businesses to create innovative solutions to complex problems. Zenzele believes that art and design have the power to change the world, and she is dedicated to using her skills to make a positive impact on society.
